

Consent for Publication of Personally Identifiable Information

As part of its advocacy efforts on behalf of people with developmental disabilities, the Montgomery County Board of Developmental Disabilities Services (MCBDDS) seeks to provide information to the public through various programs and activities, events, facilities, staff, and the individuals and families it serves.

Before personally identifiable information is shared, individuals (or their legal guardians) must consent (agree) to the release of said information, which may include – but is not limited to – their name, image or likeness, voice, work, personal or background information, and achievements.

By providing consent, signers agree to release MCBDDS from any liability associated with violation of privacy, confidentiality, personal or property rights they have in connection with such materials. Consent also affirms that individuals or their guardians a) waive any right to approve said materials, and b) understand that their participation is voluntary, and will not lead to financial compensation of any type.

The Montgomery County Board of Developmental Disabilities Services has my permission to use my/my child or ward’s name, likeness, voice, work, personal or background information and achievements for community awareness, news or promotional purposes. I understand that publication may encompass presentations as well as print and electronic vehicles, including websites, videos, news outlets, social media sites, and more.

In granting this consent, I release and hold harmless the Montgomery County Board of Developmental Disabilities Services, its agents and successors, from liability or harm that may result from the publication of such materials.

I understand that this authorization may be revoked or cancelled at any time (except to the extent that action has been taken in reliance on it) by notifying, in writing, the MCBDDS Communications Department at 8114 North Main Street, Dayton, OH 45415 or via e-mail at communityrelations@mcbdds.org.

- The Montgomery County Board can only publish my name, my picture, a picture of my work, or information about my background if I tell them it's OK and sign their Consent Form.
- I DO NOT have to sign the Board's Consent for Publication form.
- If I DO sign the form, it means I am telling the Board it is OK to share my information as way to help people understand the Board's services and its work, or to help people better understand people with disabilities.
- If I sign the form, I'm only giving them the OK to share my information for this purpose. After that, Board staff will have to ask me again.
- My picture or information could be used:
 - On the Board websites, on blogs or online news sites
 - On social media sites like Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, LinkedIn and YouTube
 - In visual presentations, like PowerPoints
 - In printed items, like brochures, reports, books, flyers and other items
 - In videos shown at meetings or posted to the Board's YouTube channel or website
 - On TV or radio news
 - In an emailed publication like a newspaper, newsletter or annual report
 - In ways not listed here
- If I give my OK, I understand that I will not be paid.
- If I give my OK, I understand that I will not be allowed to approve materials before or after they are published.
- If I change my mind and don't want the Board to use my picture or information anymore, I need to tell a member of the Board's staff in writing. I can do this, or my guardian can tell them for me.

They will need to send an e-mail to communityrelations@mcbdds.org or send a letter in the mail to the MCBDDS Communications Director, MCBDDS, 8114 N. Main St., Dayton, Ohio, 45415, and explain that I no longer want my information to be used or shared.
- If I have questions about this form or how my information is being used, I should contact the MCBDDS Communications Department staff at 937-732-3706 or or 937-776-0866 or by emailing them at communityrelations@mcbdds.org.
